MYSTERY READER EXPECTATIONS

- When volunteering to be a VIRTUAL mystery reader in your child's class, please keep in mind the following:
  - Please provide 3 clues about yourself. Be sure they aren't too obvious. Here is a sample set of clues written by a parent last year.
    1. My favorite book when I was in Kindergarten was Mrs. Wishy Washy.
    2. My family has one dog as a pet.
    3. I love to watch movies with my family.Kindly email or put a note in your child's folder prior to your assigned day/time.
  - Please be on time for the day/time you signed up for.
  - Choose a school-age/grade level appropriate book. If you need ideas, I have included links to grade appropriate books on the last page of this document.
  - Be sure students can see the pages of the book and hear you clearly.
  - Email me the name of the book that you plan on sharing...just want to be sure you don't choose the same book as another reader!
- I will share the clues with the class prior to your reading, SO...when you are introduced, remember to announce who you are. You are welcome to be creative-- such as bringing a puppet, wear a costume, bring your pets, use a unique voice, etc...
- Most importantly...HAVE FUN!

Calling all Virtual Mystery Readers!

Parents and/or Guardians,

I've been looking to find fun and interactive ways to get parents involved in the classroom, VIRTUALLY. I have set aside time every week for parents and family members to read aloud to the students. To add an exciting twist to an otherwise typical read-aloud experience, the reader each week is a "mystery" to the students until minutes before he or she arrives in our virtual classroom.

You will need to sign up through Signup.com. You will also need to include 3 clues about yourself. These clues will be shared by your child's teacher prior to your visit. Then, the students will have an opportunity to guess who it is. Following that, we will connect you to our room and you can reveal who you are! The meeting link will be emailed to you prior to your assigned day/time.

I also encourage parents to invite grandparents, older siblings, or any other family members, that might be interested in visiting our classroom virtually to be Mystery Readers during the school year.

Thank you!

MRS. HINSON
